From the VRA Council

Vacant Position – State Butts Officer

Good Day VRA Members

After many years of being the VRA's State Butts Officer, Keith Cooke, otherwise known as Cookie has decided to hand in his radio and bullet gauge and concentrate more on his F Class shooting. Keith will be Butts Officer for the 2013 Syme Series but will compete in his first Queens for quite a while. At this stage we have secured the services of a suitably qualified Butts Officer from NSW to run the 2013 Queens Series.

The position of State Butts Officer is a very important in ensuring the safe conduct of our shoots and the VRA Council has resolved to advertise the position. This of course is a paid fee for service position with the two main events each year being the Syme and Queens series in April and the VRA Teams Matches in September.

If you are interested in this vital position or know of anyone who may be interested, please contact either me or Rod and Cheryle at the shop.

Thanks everyone.
